

Tutor Vacancy: Piano Coach and Accompanist/Workshop leader

HMDT Music seeks an experienced musician to teach piano, accompany choirs, and lead early years workshops. The role is based in Hackney, at HMDT Music's Saturday Programme, which enriches the lives of young people through high quality music education and opportunities, staffed by experienced and dynamic musicians and coaches who foster an appreciation of a wide variety of musical genres and opportunities.

In the Music Box, the successful candidate will lead young children and their parents in singing, movement, and music skills, as well as collaborating a weekly visiting guest artist. As a part of the wider programme, you will accompany choirs, and teach piano in individual lessons. You should be able to teach in a range of styles. Responsibilities include planning the structure and repertoire for each lesson, monitoring student progress and contributing to student End of Year Reports, and working with the Saturday Programme Manager to ensure the creation and quality delivery of an agreed Scheme of Work. You should have experience of working with children aged 6 months -14 years in groups and individually. The contract will initially be to work on Saturdays from 9.00am for approximately 6 hours for 20 weeks across the Spring and Summer terms from January 2021, and is renewable each academic year.

Details on how to apply can be found on the Company's website: www.hmdt.org.uk. Applicants must have authorisation to work in the UK. If you feel you can excel in this role, please fill out our online application form outlining your suitability for the post, along with your CV and covering letter, References and Monitoring Form. Any enquiries should be addressed to: applications@hmdt.org.uk.
